Run that by me again???
Yesterday, today
 didn't even exist;
But, then I realized that today was tomorrow, and tomorrow was today;
Somewhere along the line,
I really can't tell you what happened to today.

Graduation

May 24, 1980

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

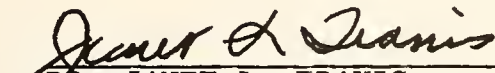

I am pleased that the Carontawan Staff has provided an opportunity for me to contribute to the 1980 Edition.

College yearbooks are among those things that increase in value as they grow older. Except for those who dedicated themselves to the task of preparing this annual, its publication is "taken for granted." We enjoy the immediate thrill of receiving our book and the satisfaction of that first frantic survey of its contents. Then, rather quickly, it will find its way to a bookshelf, a storage container, or to a corner of a remote storage area.

Eventually, we will re-discover our Carontawan 1980. This time, its pages will be carefully studied, its pictures will be scrutinized, and the contents of the volume will be savored. We will recall Mansfield as it was in those years we were there. Most often, we will have fond memories, and those that are not so fond will be softened by the cushion of time. It is during those intervals that we re-discover our Carontawan 1980, and we will understand its true value. You have those times ahead.

Please accept my thanks for choosing Mansfield as your College. We look forward to receiving you as a member of our Alumni, and we anticipate your continuing support.

We trust you will value your years at Mansfield as much as we have valued your presence here.

Mansfield State College,

We would like to take this opportunity to say thanks for making our year as co-editors an interesting and pleasant experience. We apologize if there are any discrepancies or lack of pictures in the yearbook, although we tried our hardest.

Our personal thanks goes to the staff to which we have dedicated these last pages. They did a great job for the little experience and time they had. We would like to thank the "Flashlight", CUB, and other organizations which have helped to make this a good yearbook.

A special thanks to Mike Gilroy, our representative, and Joe Maresco, our advisor, for leading us when we had trouble. We were just rookies in the yearbook business; they helped us a lot.

Looks like you made it, seniors. We wish you success in all your endeavors. We hope this book captures the memories of your years at Mansfield State College.

Carontawan Co-editors,
Judy Nelson
